FERRYBOAT SUNK IN SHARK INFESTED WATER

STEAMER RAMS BOAT IN SYDNEY HARBOR, 12 DEAD

35 WERE INJURED, 5 MISSING, AS
FERRYBOAT SINKS IN 30 SECONDS

ENGINE CREW IMPRISONED IN
HOLD AS TAHITI'S PROW
SHEARED THROUGH

By A. W. V. KING

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Sydney, Australia, Nov. 3.—Twelve persons were killed, 35 injured and five were missing following a collision in Sydney harbor today when the steamer Tahiti rammed a crowded ferryboat.

The ferry, whose passengers were mostly women and children bound for a picnic, sank within 30 seconds in the shark-infested water.

Some passengers were terribly injured in the collision itself. Others were imprisoned in salons, as was the engine room crew in the hold.

The United Press correspondent witnessed the tragedy from the shore.

Bound from New Zealand for San Francisco, the Tahiti ran down the ferryboat before its happy excursionists realized that a collision was imminent.

Its prow penetrating far into the ferry, the Tahiti bowled over the smaller boat as if nothing more than a nine-pin were in its path.

Mothers and children sought each other. Some merely were separated by the rushing crowd; others were imprisoned in salons, and watched helplessly the futile efforts to free them by scratching at the splintered wood that held them during the few seconds before the ferry sank.

Observers ashore saw scores of heads bobbing in the water.

Fortunately a dozen ships were nearby, including half a dozen ferryboats. They rescued most of the passengers, some frightfully injured.

Aboard the rescue ships the scenes of fearful search for relatives was resumed.

It is regarded as almost miraculous that many people were not eaten by the sharks with which the harbor abounds at this season of the year.

The steamer "Tahiti" is listed in Lloyd's register as a steel, twin-screw vessel of 7,898 tons. It is owned by the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, Ltd. It is 460 feet long, 55.5 feet wide and 24.4 feet deep. The vessel was built in 1904 by A. Stephen & Sons, Ltd., Glasgow, Scotland. It is a British vessel with London as its port of registry.

The Tahiti resumed her voyage to San Francisco after standing by to aid in rescue work.

NEW FRENCH NOTE ON TARIFF RECEIVED

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—A new French note on the tariff discrimination dispute was received by the state department today.

Pending careful study, officials thought it probably opens the way for an immediate temporary tariff agreement preparatory to negotiations for a permanent commercial treaty.

The note is understood to offer to restore temporarily the favorable duties on American goods existing before the discriminatory rates of Sept. 6 provided the state department accepts concessions outlined by the note.

Some of these concessions—such as a re-examination of certain high American tariff duties on French goods and sanitary restrictions—have already been agreed to by the United States.

'GORILLA MAN' IS UNCONCERNED AS TRIAL PROGRESSES

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Unconcerned, dozing at times, Earle Nelson, "the gorilla man," rested easily in his defendant's chair today while the prosecution presented evidence which it hopes will send him to the gallows.

Nelson is on trial for the murder of Mrs. Emily Patterson, whose nude body was found in her home, death having resulted from strangulation.

Authorities here believe Nelson is the "strangler" held responsible for more than 20 women murders in the United States.

73 YEAR OLD WOMAN FOUND SLAIN IN HOME

Maquoketa, Ia., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Almost without a clue, authorities today endeavored to explain the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth McKittrick.

The 73-year-old woman was found dead in her home late Wednesday. Her home had been ransacked, giving evidence that the motive of the crime was robbery.

Relatives of Mrs. McKittrick told police that she kept $25,000 secreted in her house. A police search of the place netted only $1,400 from various caches.

A half burned cigarette stub, indicating that the murderer had gone leisurely about his work, furnished police with their only evidence.

ED JACKSON, INDIANA GOVERNOR, FACING TRIAL

FACES CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO BRIBE A PUBLIC OFFICIAL

JACKSON WITH TWO CO-DEFEND-ANTS IS UNDER INDICTMENT

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—The governor of Indiana—Ed. Jackson—may go to trial here Monday on charges of conspiracy to bribe a public official.

Jackson, with two co-defendants, is under indictment for an alleged attempt to bribe Governor Warren T. McCray, who eventually served a prison sentence as a result of financial operations.

Accused with Jackson are George V. Coffin, admittedly a republican political power in Indiana, and Robert I. Marsh, an attorney.

Tomorrow a hearing will be held on the indictment and attorneys for Jackson will ask that it be quashed. If the state refuses to cast aside the charges the three defendants will go to trial Monday.

According to the accusations, Jackson and his co-defendants offered McCray $10,000 to appoint a Marion county prosecutor favorable to the Ku Klux Klan.

It is also charged that Jackson promised McCray immunity from prosecution on the charges which eventually sent the former governor to the penitentiary.

McCray is said to have refused Jackson's offer on the grounds that "I may lose my office, I may lose my money, I may even go to the penitentiary, but lose my honor by taking a bribe—never."

Negotiations to Settle Greece's War Debt to United States

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Negotiations for settling Greece's $18,750,000 war debt to the United States by making additional credit advances to Greece are progressing satisfactorily, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announced today.

Mellon said the negotiations could be expected to end agreeably to both nations soon.

Greece in 1918 was granted a United States credit of about $48,000,000 but drew only $15,000,000 on which $13,750,000 interest is now due. Greece now is reported seeking about $15,000,000 of the unused portion of the credit, to be used for stabilization.

Mellon said legislation would be necessary before the treasury could advance Greece money under the old war time credit agreement.

TORRENTIAL RAINS IN SOUTHERN WALES FLOOD HOMES, MINES

Cardiff, Wales, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Hundreds of homes and coal mines have been flooded, and railway, telegraph, and telephone lines have been cut by serious floods following torrential rains in southern Wales.

It is feared that 24 persons have been lost on two Irish vessels which have not been heard from since Friday's storms.

WOMAN IN DRAMATIC ESCAPE FROM DEATH

MRS. MICHAEL BORODIN IS WIFE OF SOVIET ADVISOR TO CANTONESE

WAS CAPTIVE IN HANDS OF THE
NORTHERN CHINESE
ARMY

Randall Gould, now stationed at Manila, was the United Press correspondent at Peking when Mrs. Michael Borodin escaped from the Northern Chinese forces. Together with other Europeans and Americans who knew of the dramatic flight the woman was making, he refused to divulge information in the hope that her escape would be successful. The news that she safely reached Moscow leaves Mr. Gould free to tell the vivid and dramatic story of her escape.

By RANDALL GOULD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Manila, P. I., Nov. 3.—The news of the safe arrival at Moscow of Mrs. Michael Borodin, wife of the Soviet advisor to the Cantonese government today releases for the first time her heroic and dramatic escape from death at the hands of the Northern Chinese army, followed by weeks of flight from village to village, always only figurative inches ahead of the army and all its resources.

The flight started last summer in Peking when she and three Soviet couriers were released from jail by a Chinese judge against the orders of Chang-Tso-Lin, Manchurian warlord, after they had been sentenced to death.

Chang was informed of her release a few hours later and, infuriated, ordered her rearrested. The intelligence division of his army was assigned to bring her in, dead or alive, according to reports current in Peking at the time.

But word of Chang's order reached the former Soviet embassy, then the headquarters of a few consular officials, where she had taken refuge, before his soldiers arrived and she disappeared.

Mrs. Borodin had not time to reach the gates of the city before they were guarded closely by detectives garbed as rickshaw boys, so she took immediate refuge in the home of Russian friends while other Russians endeavored to convince the soldiery of the North that she had already safely fled the city.

The soldiery, unbelieving, placed mounted guards on all the roads and at all gates of the city, and ordered the vernacular papers to cease printing the story in an effort to deceive her into thinking further caution was unnecessary.

Weeks in the filthy jails controlled by the Northern hordé had taught her caution, however, and in a desperate effort she succeeded in disguising herself sufficiently to pass through the seemingly impenetrable wall the soldiers had thrown about her.

There followed days and weeks and months when she was always on the move, never daring to stay at one place more than a few hours, always just ahead of the detectives who were everywhere, for Chang Tso-Lin, provisional chief of the Northern army, himself, had ordered her capture and to the detective who found her would have gone immeasurable glory.

During this great flight across China to her homeland, she was protected, housed and provided for by Russian friends, who realizing that discovery meant death to them all, worked out a system of transportation and deception for Mrs. Borodin which outwitted the wildest of Chang's intelligence officers.

Three couriers also all successfully escaped the clutches of the Manchurians. One, bolder than the others, traveled out of the country disguised as a sport enthusiast, on the regular railway trains, deceiving the detectives with his impedimenta of tennis rackets, golf clubs and other sporting paraphernalia.

FORD DEALERS TO HAVE NEW MODEL SHORTLY

New York, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Ford dealers all over the country will have models of the new car to display within two weeks, Herman Lasky, of the Lasky Motor Car company, said today on his return from Detroit.

"All I am at liberty to say is that the new model is better than we expected," said Lasky, who explained that the Ford officials had asked the visitors not to disclose the details of the new car.

"The Ford factories started producing 200 cars a day early this week and my understanding was that all dealers were to have models within two weeks," he said.

Lasky and several other Brooklyn Ford dealers arrived here by train today after being forced down twice in the airplane that carried them from Detroit.

BAUMES LAW REMEMBERS THE FORGOTTEN VICTIM

CHIEF JUSTICE TAFT SPEAKS TO NATIONAL CRIME COM-MISSION CONFERENCE

COUNTRY AROUSED TO NEED OF
BETTER LEGAL MACHINERY TO PROSECUTE CRIME

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Chief Justice William Howard Taft of the United States supreme court told the National Crime Commission here today that the whole country is becoming aroused to the necessity for better legal machinery for the prosecution of crime.

"The Baumes law," he said, "seems to indicate that the forgotten man—the victim of murder or robbery—is being remembered. We must not allow our interest in criminals to cause us to make the prosecution of crime subordinate to reform."

(The Baumes law provides life imprisonment for habitual criminals.)

The country at large is ripe for measures which will insure speedier prosecution, Taft said. This idea was originally voiced by the chief justice in an interview with the United Press last year. He also told the commission of another idea contained in that interview, namely that judges ought to have more power in conduct of criminal cases.

Exemption from jury service should be reduced, he said, and the judge should be allowed more leeway in conduct of a trial. The jury, he said, ought to be judge of the facts, but there is need for an explanation of the law of the case, and there should be less swaying of juries by temperamental arguments.

FLIER IN NEAR ACCIDENT WHEN CAR HITS DITCH

French Lick, Ind., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Edward F. Schlee, who flew almost around the world without a mishap, narrowly escaped serious injury here late Wednesday when his automobile plunged over an embankment. Schlee, his wife and their chauffeur were uninjured when their car swerved to prevent hitting another and then plunged off the road.

EUROPEAN NATION WANTS TO BUY MILITARY PLANES

San Diego, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—An unnamed European nation, through a New York brokerage house, has asked the B. F. Mahoney Aircraft corporation to bid for the construction of 40 military training planes, it was announced today. Twenty of the planes requested are to be eighty horsepower and the other twenty 160 horsepower.

IN MORNING FARMER MAKES GRUESOME FIND

CARL VAN HERCKE DISCOVERS
BODY OF A ROUGHLY
DRESSED MAN

CHARGE OF SHOTGUN FIRED HIT
HIM SQUARELY IN
HEAD

Little Falls, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—An unidentified man seeking a bed in a haystack was shot to death here early today by Carl Van Hercke, well driller, who investigated a commotion in his barnyard.

Awakened by the barking of his dog, Van Hercke, armed with a 12-gauge shotgun, searched his barnyard for what he thought was an animal prowling in his poultry yard.

An object resembling top of a post caught his attention behind the haystack and he took a pot shot at it. Without investigating the result of his aim, Van Hercke went back to bed.

This morning, when he climbed to the top of the haystack to obtain feed for his stock, he found the body of a roughly dressed man, shot through the head.

Hercke told his story to the sheriff of Morrison county and was released pending an inquest which probably will be held late today. An autopsy will be performed.

FALLS ASLEEP IN CAR HE HAD STOLEN

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Paul Nixon, 22, of Chicago, could not get away with it in Kansas City, despite the fact that Rip Van Winkle did in the Catskills.

Rip slept for twenty years and got a lot of sympathy when he awakened.

Nixon slept for only a few hours, and got two years when he awakened.

The Chicago youth had planned to rob a store in Odessa, Mo. He reached the front of the store, fell asleep in the stolen car he was driving, and awakened when the town marshal tapped him with a billy club.

Judge Clarence A. Burney of the Jackson county circuit court decided that Nixon might as well go to jail for stealing an automobile.

CANCER PREVENTABLE BUT NO CURE FOR THE MALADY

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Cancer is preventable but as yet there is no cure for it, Dr. Disraeli Kobak, president of the American College of Physical Therapy told a convention of his organization here.

Approximately 2,500 physicians and surgeons from all parts of the world are attending the meeting.

"The cause of cancer is still to be found," Dr. Kobak said. "There is no absolute cure. Cancer is preventable and education from recognized medical bodies is of utmost importance. Irritations and growths should be brought to the attention of physicians early."

KOENNECKE DROPS OUT OF SIGHT SINCE LEAVING KARACHI

Allahabad, India, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Nothing has been heard today from Otto Koennecke, German round-the-world aviator, since he left Karachi yesterday, announcing Allahabad as his destination.

It was feared he had made a forced landing, particularly as he had been held up for weeks by persistent engine trouble, which it was hoped finally had been removed.

BEDOUIIN TRIBES IN GORY CLASH; 200 SLAIN OR WOUNDED

London, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—The Daily Express Jerusalem correspondent reports that dispatches from Damascus state 200 have been killed or wounded in clashes between two sections of the Rualla Trizat, most powerful of the Bedouins.

The fighting occurred in the neighborhood of Deraa, close to the Palestine frontier, according to the report.

It is feared that the feud may spread among other tribes, many of which already are on the war-path.

The conflict is reported to have started over the question of loyalty to heads of the well-known Schakani tribe, after French intervention failed. Grave consequences are feared.

OPPOSITIONERS OF RAIL MERGER HAVE HEARING

CONTEST UNIFICATION PLAN AS PRESENTED TO THE
I. C. C.

RALPH BUDD, OF GREAT NORTH-ERN, SUBJECTED TO LENGTHY
CROSS EXAMINATION

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Opponents of the proposed merger of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and the Spokane, Portland & Seattle lines today made efforts to break down testimony given in favor of the unification at the I. C. C. hearing in session here.

Counsel for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road subjected Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern, to lengthy cross-examination this morning and when the noon recess was taken it was indicated that more questions would be fired at Budd this afternoon.

Frederick H. Wood, attorney for the C. M. & St. P., quoted a statement made by the Great Northern president in which he declared his road must reduce expenses or increase rates.

When asked what was meant by the statement, Budd replied that "the importance of reducing railway costs is ever present."

"You haven't any intention of voluntarily reducing rates, have you?" Wood asked.

"I haven't any intentions about rates at all, except where the unification might bring economy," Budd answered.

During the course of the cross-examination Wood obtained a statement from the witness that the Great Northern had been a "strong road" with the exception of the year 1920.

The Great Northern line would have faced bankruptcy if conditions which were far below normal after the war had not improved, Budd stated.

In reply to a question by Attorney Wood the witness stated that the valuation of the United States and Canadian properties of the Great Northern totaled $521,000,000.

Budd placed a value of $486,000,000 on the road's United States' properties and $35,000,000 on those of Canada.

Attorney Wood then turned to the I. C. C. examiner and stated that other witnesses for the applicants of the proposed merger presented figures which showed that the Great Northern is now earning a return of more than five and three-fourths per cent.

PANGALOS, FORMER DICTATOR OF GREECE, EXILED AND ILL

Athens, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—It is reported that General Pangalos, former dictator of Greece, is seriously ill on the island of the Aegean Sea, where he has been exiled. He is reported to have refused the attendance of a prison physician, declaring "he would poison me," and demanding his own physician in Athens.

OPPOSED BEFORE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

TAXES ON AUTOMOBILES, MUSIC
AND ADMIS-
SIONS

"IN STORMY DAYS OF 1917 AD-
VISABILITY OF TAX NOT
QUESTIONED"

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Nuisance taxes, including those on automobiles, music and admissions, were opposed before the house ways and means committee today by representatives of interested industries. Appeal was made that these taxes, inaugurated in war time, be repealed in the new revenue bill upon which the committee now is holding hearings.

Simultaneously a statement was issued by the National Automobile Dealers Association opposing Secretary of Treasury Mellon's proposal for retention of the automobile taxes.

"In the stormy days of 1917 we did not question the advisability of this tax, but consented to the principle as a patriotic duty to win the war," the statement said. "A war time sacrifice has now become a peace time exaction. A gift laid on the altar of freedom is to be collected perpetually on the ground of expediency."

Witnesses of the day included: L. A. Lecher, Milwaukee, and Louise Silcox, representing New York Authors League of America; Alfred L. Smith, New York, Music Industries Chamber of Commerce; Charles Lederer, Norwood, Ohio, manufacturer; Isaac W. Framm, Pittsburgh; Ralph W. Smith, Los Angeles; Lena S. Phillips, New York, National Federation of Women's Clubs; Martha L. Connole, East St. Louis; Nathan W. MacChesney, Chicago, Ill.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Two may not live cheaper than one but the one has to pay more to keep up a home than either of the two, four representatives of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs told the house ways and means committee today.

The women asked increased exemption from income taxes for unmarried persons, pointing out that married persons have been given extraordinary exemptions since the war while the exemption of a single person has been cut from $3,000 to $1,500.

"This is unfair neglect of single persons," they said. "It costs more for a single person to maintain a home than it does for a married person."

This was the first time unmarried men and women have been represented in hearings on tax reduction bills since the war.

Nathan W. MacChesney, Chicago, representative of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, appealed to the committee for complete revision of tax laws affecting real estate. He asked that the same advantages given sellers of other property be adopted for real estate dealers.

SECOND 'RIGHT TO KILL' CASE IN ENGLAND

Tonbridge, Eng., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Felicia Waite died here today of arsenic administered, police said, by her daughter, Mrs. Margaret B. Delvigne, 34, in England's second "right to kill" case within a fortnight.

Mrs. Delvigne was arraigned Tuesday on the charge that she had given the poison to relieve her mother of terrible suffering from malignant cancer of the liver.

ST. PAUL MAN HELD ON FRAUD CHARGES

Richmond, Va., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—James G. Emory, 53, was arrested here today and held for police of Detroit, where he was said to be wanted on fraud charges in connection with the sale of stock in financial companies he allegedly promoted. Emory claimed he was from St. Paul, Minn., police said.

"The Baumes law," he said, "seems to indicate that the forgotten man—the victim of murder or robbery—is being remembered. We must not allow our interest in criminals to cause us to make the prosecution of crime subordinate to reform."

(The Baumes law provides life imprisonment for habitual criminals.)

The country at large is ripe for measures which will insure speedier prosecution, Taft said. This idea was originally voiced by the chief justice in an interview with the United Press last year. He also told the commission of another idea contained in that interview, namely that judges ought to have more power in conduct of criminal cases.

Exemption from jury service should be reduced, he said, and the judge should be allowed more leeway in conduct of a trial. The jury, he said, ought to be judge of the facts, but there is need for an explanation of the law of the case, and there should be less swaying of juries by temperamental arguments.

FLIER IN NEAR ACCIDENT WHEN CAR HITS DITCH

French Lick, Ind., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Edward F. Schlee, who flew almost around the world without a mishap, narrowly escaped serious injury here late Wednesday when his automobile plunged over an embankment. Schlee, his wife and their chauffeur were uninjured when their car swerved to prevent hitting another and then plunged off the road.

EUROPEAN NATION WANTS TO BUY MILITARY PLANES

San Diego, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—An unnamed European nation, through a New York brokerage house, has asked the B. F. Mahoney Aircraft corporation to bid for the construction of 40 military training planes, it was announced today. Twenty of the planes requested are to be eighty horsepower and the other twenty 160 horsepower.

IN MORNING FARMER MAKES GRUESOME FIND

BODY OF A ROUGHLY
DRESSED MAN

CHARGE OF SHOTGUN FIRED HIT
HEAD

Little Falls, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—An unidentified man seeking a bed in a haystack was shot to death here early today by Carl Van Hercke, well driller, who investigated a commotion in his barnyard.

Awakened by the barking of his dog, Van Hercke, armed with a 12-gauge shotgun, searched his barnyard for what he thought was an animal prowling in his poultry yard.

An object resembling top of a post caught his attention behind the haystack and he took a pot shot at it. Without investigating the result of his aim, Van Hercke went back to bed.

This morning, when he climbed to the top of the haystack to obtain feed for his stock, he found the body of a roughly dressed man, shot through the head.

Hercke told his story to the sheriff of Morrison county and was released pending an inquest which probably will be held late today. An autopsy will be performed.

FALLS ASLEEP IN CAR HE HAD STOLEN

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Paul Nixon, 22, of Chicago, could not get away with it in Kansas City, despite the fact that Rip Van Winkle did in the Catskills.

Rip slept for twenty years and got a lot of sympathy when he awakened.

Nixon slept for only a few hours, and got two years when he awakened.

The Chicago youth had planned to rob a store in Odessa, Mo. He reached the front of the store, fell asleep in the stolen car he was driving, and awakened when the town marshal tapped him with a billy club.

Judge Clarence A. Burney of the Jackson county circuit court decided that Nixon might as well go to jail for stealing an automobile.

CANCER PREVENTABLE BUT NO CURE FOR THE MALADY

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Cancer is preventable but as yet there is no cure for it, Dr. Disraeli Kobak, president of the American College of Physical Therapy told a convention of his organization here.

Approximately 2,500 physicians and surgeons from all parts of the world are attending the meeting.

"The cause of cancer is still to be found," Dr. Kobak said. "There is no absolute cure. Cancer is preventable and education from recognized medical bodies is of utmost importance. Irritations and growths should be brought to the attention of physicians early."

KOENNECKE DROPS OUT OF SIGHT SINCE LEAVING KARACHI

Allahabad, India, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Nothing has been heard today from Otto Koennecke, German round-the-world aviator, since he left Karachi yesterday, announcing Allahabad as his destination.

It was feared he had made a forced landing, particularly as he had been held up for weeks by persistent engine trouble, which it was hoped finally had been removed.

BEDOUIN TRIBES IN GORY CLASH; 200 SLAIN OR WOUNDED

London, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—The Daily Express Jerusalem correspondent reports that dispatches from Damascus state 200 have been killed or wounded in clashes between two sections of the Rualla Trizat, most powerful of the Bedouins.

The fighting occurred in the neighborhood of Derna, close to the Palestine frontier, according to the report.

It is feared that the feud may spread among other tribes, many of which already are on the war-path.

The conflict is reported to have started over the question of loyalty to heads of the well-known Schalani tribe, after French intervention failed. Grave consequences are feared.

OPPOSITION OF RAIL MERGER HAVE HEARING

PRESENTED TO THE
I. C. C.

RALPH BUDD, OF GREAT NORTHERN, SUBJECTED TO LENGTHY
CROSS EXAMINATION

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Opponents of the proposed merger of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and the Spokane, Portland & Seattle lines today made efforts to break down testimony given in favor of the unification at the I. C. C. hearing in session here.

Counsel for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road subjected Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern, to lengthy cross-examination this morning and when the noon recess was taken it was indicated that more questions would be fired at Budd this afternoon.

Frederick H. Wood, attorney for the C. M. & St. P., quoted a statement made by the Great Northern president in which he declared his road must reduce expenses or increase rates.

When asked what was meant by the statement, Budd replied that "the importance of reducing railway costs is ever present."

"You haven't any intention of voluntarily reducing rates, have you?" Wood asked.

"I haven't any intentions about rates at all, except where the unification might bring economy," Budd answered.

During the course of the cross-examination Wood obtained a statement from the witness that the Great Northern had been a "strong road" with the exception of the year 1920.

The Great Northern line would have faced bankruptcy if conditions which were far below normal after the war had not improved, Budd stated.

In reply to a question by Attorney Wood the witness stated that the valuation of the United States and Canadian properties of the Great Northern totaled $521,000,000.

Budd placed a value of $485,000,000 on the road's United States properties and $35,000,000 on those of Canada.

Attorney Wood then turned to the I. C. C. examiner and stated that other witnesses for the applicants of the proposed merger presented figures which showed that the Great Northern is now earning a return of more than five and three-fourths per cent.

PANGALOS, FORMER DICTATOR OF GREECE, EXILED AND ILL

Athens, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—It is reported that General Pangalos, former dictator of Greece, is seriously ill on the island of the Aegean Sea, where he has been exiled. He is reported to have refused the attendance of a prison physician, declaring "he would poison me," and demanding his own physician in Athens.

OPPOSED BEFORE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE

TAXES ON AUTOMOBILES, MUSIC
AND ADMIS-
SIONS

"IN STORMY DAYS OF 1917 AD-
VISABILITY OF TAX NOT
QUESTIONED"

Washington, Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Nuisance taxes, including those on automobiles, music and admissions, were opposed before the house ways and means committee today by representatives of interested industries. Appeal was made that these taxes, inaugurated in war time, be repealed in the new revenue bill upon which the committee now is holding hearings.

Simultaneously a statement was issued by the National Automobile Dealers Association opposing Secretary of Treasury Mellon's proposal for retention of the automobile taxes.

"In the stormy days of 1917 we did not question the advisability of this tax, but consented to the principle as a patriotic duty to win the war," the statement said. "A war time sacrifice has now become a peace time exaction. A gift laid on the altar of freedom is to be collected perpetually on the ground of expediency."

Witnesses of the day included: L. A. Lecher, Milwaukee, and Louise Silcox, representing New York Authors League of America; Alfred L. Smith, New York, Music Industries Chamber of Commerce; Charles Lederer, Norwood, Ohio, manufacturer; Isaac W. Framm, Pittsburgh; Ralph W. Smith, Los Angeles; Lena S. Phillips, New York, National Federation of Women's Clubs; Martha L. Connoles, East St. Louis; Nathan W. Macchesney, Chicago, Ill.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Two may not live cheaper than one but the one has to pay more to keep up a home than either of the two, four representatives of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs told the house ways and means committee today.

The women asked increased exemption from income taxes for unmarried persons, pointing out that married persons have been given extraordinary exemptions since the war while the exemption of a single person has been cut from $3,000 to $1,500.

"This is unfair neglect of single persons," they said. "It costs more for a single person to maintain a home than it does for a married person."

This was the first time unmarried men and women have been represented in hearings on tax reduction bills since the war.

Nathan W. Macchesney, Chicago, representative of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, appealed to the committee for complete revision of tax laws affecting real estate. He asked that the same advantages given sellers of other property be adopted for real estate dealers.

SECOND 'RIGHT TO KILL' CASE IN ENGLAND

Tonbridge, Eng., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Mrs. Felicia Waite died here today of arsenic administered, police said, by her daughter, Mrs. Margaret B. Delvigne, 34, in England's second "right to kill" case within a fortnight.

Mrs. Delvigne was arraigned Tuesday on the charge that she had given the poison to relieve her mother of terrible suffering from malignant cancer of the liver.

ST. PAUL MAN HELD ON FRAUD CHARGES

Richmond, Va., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—James G. Emory, 53, was arrested here today and held for police of Detroit, where he was said to be wanted on fraud charges in connection with the sale of stock in financial companies he allegedly promoted. Emory claimed he was from St. Paul, Minn., police said.

Observing

To be alert is to be observing and the world makes way for the person who is not indifferent to life, but always looking for the most value in life.

Very truly

Clear-cut writing with terminals running on and upward is characteristic of the wide-awake fellow. There is an absence of selfishness in this person and so you will find that his writing is not messy-looking, but clean. Letters will be well formed, but there will be a suggestion of angularity to it which indicates a shrewd, alert mind.

The lower stroke of the y and g will be short and perhaps come up on the right hand side of the down stroke. T-bars that are not running a little toward the right and made firmly will be made with a sweep back from the end of the word to the t forming a triangle, thus showing reasoning power and vision.

There will be few signs of the day-dreamer in the writing of one who is observing. Absence of many curves and flourishes marks the keen-eyed person.

Uses of Oil on Body

As is the case in many warm countries, oil was used by the Jews for anointing the body, after a bath for example, and before an entertainment to give the skin and hair a smooth and comely appearance. Olive oil had also a funeral use. The bodies of the dead were anointed with oil by the Greeks and Romans, probably as a partial antiseptic, and a similar practice seems to have prevailed among the Jews.

Germs' Spread Feared: Ex-Hospital to Burn

Edmonton, England—A disused hospital in the populous downtown district here has been ordered burnt by the city health authorities, who fear that if the structure were razed in any other way germs might escape.

About twenty-five years ago a smallpox epidemic raged here and since then the hospital has been used as a storage place for lumber.

Health officers said that if the building was pulled down germs might escape through the wood joints.

Drink Water to Help Wash Out Kidney Poison

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and back-ache.

There's no use arguing about it, the old motor starts harder these cool mornings.

Pleasant tasting medicine never seems to do much good.

Most mothers of six children would have nerves and other fashionable ills if they had time.

How would you divide 999 eggs among 1000 soldiers?

The answer is easy—shoot one soldier.

Among the early tragedies of life is to rake up all the leaves in the neighborhood for an evening bonfire, and then have some other kids come along during the supper hour and set 'em afire.

Hallowe'en night some youngsters appropriated a state highway department sign and erected it on one of our principal streets. It was amusing to see the cars drive up to the sign, stop and then turn and go around a block. Yes, we were one of them.

Speaking of worthlessness, we overheard this one the other day. "What's that fellow worth?" somebody asked. "Well," was the answer, "he just lacks a dollar and a half of being worth a d—!"

This happened in Bye's Clothing Store. A man was buying a hat. His wife was with him. Ben Anderson showed them a $5.00 hat, which the customer liked, but the wife said it was entirely too high. "That's a nice hat you're wearing," remarked Ben to the lady. She flushed. "I guess I did pay too much for that hat," she said. And they decided on the $5.00 hat. We call that super-salesmanship.

FIND LINE TROUBLE

"Capacity Ground" on a 2300 Line on Poles Between 4th and 5th on Main Street

Line trouble which for days has interfered with radio reception has been at length located, according to a volunteer committee composed of Everett W. McQuillin, R. B. Hamilton, B. E. Dunham and Ole Warlor, city electrician.

They described it as a "capacity ground" on a 2300 line on poles on Main street between 4th and 5th streets. When unchecked the noise was so loud that it bothered radio reception the past three days.

Observing

To be alert is to be observing and the world makes way for the person who is not indifferent to life, but always looking for the most value in life.

Very truly
By

Clear-cut writing with terminals running on and upward is characteristic of the wide-awake fellow. There is an absence of selfishness in this person and so you will find that his writing is not messy-looking, but clean. Letters will be well formed, but there will be a suggestion of angularity to it which indicates a shrewd, alert mind.

The lower stroke of the y and z will be short and perhaps come up on the right hand side of the down stroke. T-bars that are not running a little toward the right and made firmly will be made with a sweep back from the end of the word to the t forming a triangle, thus showing reasoning power and vision.

There will be few signs of the day-dreamer in the writing of one who is observing. Absence of many curves and flourishes marks the keen-eyed person.

Note—Do not make final judgment until other signs in writing are studied. (Copyright.)

Uses of Oil on Body

As is the case in many warm countries, oil was used by the Jews for anointing the body, after a bath for example, and before an entertainment to give the skin and hair a smooth and comely appearance. Olive oil had also a funeral use. The bodies of the dead were anointed with oil by the Greeks and Romans, probably as a partial antiseptic, and a similar practice seems to have prevailed among the Jews.

Worked Long on Novelty

Light housekeeping on a small scale goes on in a tiny doll's house constructed in a matchbox. The designer of the minute apartments, Charles Aldridge of Battersea, England, spent 35 years building it, and making a doll small enough to be the occupant. A masterpiece of tiny craft, it is completely furnished, even to pictures on the walls and a cover ing on the table.

Drink Water to Help Wash Out Kidney Poison

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Begin Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Meet at Minneapolis
Last Friday

WERE ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

Over 1,000 Lions and Wives Expected to Attend Meet
Here Next Year

Reports were received by the Lions club last night from delegates attending the Fifth District Conference of Lions clubs held last Friday at Minneapolis at which time Brainerd outlined to the 250 delegates in attendance from the 36 clubs in the district their plans for the 1928 district convention of Lions to be held in Brainerd and Breezy Point.

Definite dates for next year's convention in Brainerd were set by the Lions executive board at the Minneapolis meet for June 11 and 12.

Eighteen members of the local club were in attendance at the district meet which was held in the Gold Room of the Radisson hotel. Lunch was served at noon and a banquet served in the evening. Ben A. Ruffin, first vice president of Lions International of Richmond, W. Va., was the principal speaker.

The convention committee met with Mrs. W. H. Fawcett Friday afternoon and went over convention plans with her for three hours continuing the conference the next morning, at which time a great many of the convention details were ironed out.

"Indications lead us to believe," said R. L. Geist, "that we will have the largest convention that has ever been held by Lions in the Fifth district and no doubt the largest convention ever held in Brainerd or vicinity. We look for 1,000 Lions and their wives in attendance."

The Fifth District embraces a territory including Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Mrs. Nesmith Nelson was in attendance at the Minneapolis meet and was named chairman to handle entertainment for the Lionesses.

On Saturday all Lions members were guests of the Minneapolis club at the Minnesota-Wisconsin football game.

One of the interesting features of the Minneapolis meet was that Brainerd was allowed 20 minutes at the Friday noon luncheon to outline plans for next year's convention.

This time was taken up in talks by I. C. Strout, R. L. Geist, Dr. W. A. Erickson, and Mrs. W. H. Fawcett. The talks were so timed as to make it possible for the speakers to impress the gathering with the attractiveness of this locality as a convention center.

Plans were made at last evening's meeting for ladies night to be held at Island View Lodge next Wednesday evening.

Know Your Sweetheart by His Handwriting

By EDNA PURDY WALSH
Editor, Character Reading Magazine.

Is He Generous?

Will he give freely without sufficient reason or will he doubt the object of charity and perhaps withhold? Let us analyze his writing and find what clues we can.

When writing is made very large and margins on either side are wide, when words are far apart and letters in words are also far apart, then we will be sure to find a writer who gives without analysis of the case. He is emotional and is easily touched. He will as soon throw his whole purse to the person in need as he would offer a few coins. This is particularly true if the writer makes the latter section of the capital M much higher than the rest and if he makes his terminals run away from himself and toward the other word or follow.

When pressure is seen in down strokes, when the above keys are found, we find a writer who may think of himself a lot but who will always stand by in time of need.

When the terminals of small writing go on and the o's and a's are open, and t's reach high, then there is much generosity there.

Note.—Do not make final judgment until other signs in writing are studied. (Copyright.)

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

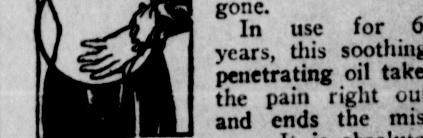

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Know Your Sweetheart by His Handwriting

By EDNA PURDY WALSH
Editor, Character Reading Magazine.

Is He Generous?

Will he give freely without sufficient reason or will he doubt the object of charity and perhaps withhold? Let us analyze his writing and find what clues we can.

When writing is made very large and margins on either side are wide, when words are far apart and letters in words are also far apart, then we will be sure to find a writer who gives without analysis of the case. He is emotional and is easily touched. He will as soon throw his whole purse to the person in need as he would offer a few coins. This is particularly true if the writer makes the latter section of the capital M much higher than the rest and if he makes his terminals run away from himself and on toward the other word or fellow.

When pressure is seen in down strokes, when the above keys are found, we find a writer who may think of himself a lot but who will always stand by in time of need.

When the terminals of small writing go on and the o's and a's are open, and it's reach high, then there is much generosity there.

Note—Do not make final judgment until other signs in writing are studied. (Copyright.)

To Be

George Elliot once said that the greatest legacy a hero leaves his race is to have been a hero. Few of us are going to be heroes. The fact remains that the greatest service we can do for those close to us is to be our best.

Marine Picture Has Interest of Entire Country

Here's one everybody's waiting to see. "The Midshipman," showing at the Park tonight and Friday. The public, the nation over, have heard about it. Every newspaper in the country ran front-page stories about it, when Ramon Novarro was at Annapolis, where it was filmed under the immediate supervision of the U. S. Naval Department within the naval academy itself.

UNMANNED

Mrs. Jones—"I hear Miss Passe is a wreck from losing the man she expected to marry." Mrs. Smith—"It's completely unmanned her, my dear."

Indestructible

There was a little joke. For centuries it grew. Now, when in public spoke, it's just as good as new.

It Showed

Sarah—Do you know that I have the soul of an artist?
Frank—I knew you painted the minute I looked at your face.

Another Sensation

Beatrice—They say Miss Van Gay plays golf like a man.
Millicent—Goodness gracious! Say, wouldn't you love to hear her?

Wasted

Love-smitten Poet—Each hour with you is like a pearl.
The Modern Miss—Aw, quit stringing me.

Simplified Grammar

Heck—Do you have any trouble with "shall" and "will"?
Peck—No; my wife says "You shall" and I say "I will."

Too Much

"Would you like to live your own life over?"
"No, I couldn't go through the tribulations of learning bridge again."

Taking the Blame

Prof. You have not learned very much in this class, have you, Babby?
Student—It's very decent of you to ask me to take the blame for that.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

THANKSGIVING

THANKSGIVING is just in the offing. Mother is thinking of her turkey roasting, pumpkin pies and home made cider. Father is anticipating many relatives will be at the festal board.

Charles E. Whelan, editor of the Modern Woodman, writes of the need of gratitude at the time of this feast:

Souls untouched by the emotion of gratitude are without that quickening impulse which marks the difference between life and death. Deaf ears and unseeing eyes, silent tongues, idle hands and sluggish feet in the presence of pulsing millions craving the human contact of interest and sympathy are evidences of atrophied souls, incapable of sensing the harmony of childish voices, catching the vision of beautiful lives, uttering a cheery greeting, feeling the hand of genuine friendship or finding the path to true happiness. With the adamant of selfishness these souls have walled themselves into their own dungeon until they have created a sarcophagus for their dead selves.

Why speak to these of thanksgiving feasts, paeans of grateful hearts or an outpouring of voiced benediction? They can have no understanding of the rhapsody of gratitude, for they have never given nor received it. With manifold gifts freely bestowed upon them they have greedily taken and ascribed their acquisition to their own cunning, yielding no praise to the Source; while there is not even a distant echo of a single being who proclaims a beneficence at their hands. The world's weal has not been augmented by their living and no regret shall follow their going, for they never have been a part of life's realities.

Who has no fruitage of a happier soul to bring to the feast of Thanksgiving comes empty handed, though freighted with the riches of earth's farthest clime. Who finds no smile of gladness lighten some countenance as he passes on the road walks in darkness, though lights as bright as the sun gleam along his path. Who carries no share of another's burden in his travel finds himself weighted with crushing load. Who lends no hand to a fellow wayfarer, struggling to advance, gropes in vain for friendship. Who steps not aside to give firmer footing to a falling brother feels his own feet.

No man can isolate himself to himself and live. He may have a room, but it might as well be a grave. He may have wealth, but it is worthless for purchasing happiness. He may have power, but it eventually will overcome him. He gets what he buys. If he would have the joy of Thanksgiving he must take the blessings which have come to him as a medium of exchange with which to purchase that gratitude of others for his living which alone shall fill the measure of his content. Thus he receives what he gives, reaps what he sows, finds what he loses.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

UNSELFISH service is freely exemplified in all that the Red Cross does.

All fraternal beneficiary societies visualize the American Red Cross is not only a kindred organization in spirit and purpose, but year by year it is becoming more and more an incalculable aid and protection to us. It not only inspires us by its unselfish ideals, but it protects our treasuries by its practical precaution, its conservation of human life.

The Red Cross is trying by education and organized prevention to teach sanitation, hygiene, life saving, first aid, every sort of common sense philosophy by which accidents and diseases may be defeated in their menace to human life. As it succeeds in that laudable purpose, it renders us a distinct and unique service.

Above this somewhat mercenary and material estimate, the American Red Cross deserves our sympathy and continued support, because in an inestimable measure it incarnates the ideal that underlies all of our societies—the truth that unselfish service for the common good is the biggest thing in the world.

The American Red Cross, with a membership of more than three millions and an additional junior membership of six millions, has become the recognized agency of the American people for extending service to humanity. Its work is supported through the membership dues secured once a year during the Roll Call.

The National Fraternal Congress, continues the Bee Hive, has recognized the possibilities for Red Cross service by appointment of a regular committee which works with the National Red Cross in all matters calling for such collaboration.

CHICAGO TRIAL OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

CHARGES OF INSUBORDINATION, INCOMPETENCE, UN- PATRIOTIC ACTS

GRAY-HAIRED FRANKLIN SCHRA- DER, OF NEW YORK, ON STAND

By C. C. NICOLET
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, United States of America, Nov. 3.—This is an account of a session of the trial by the board of education of William McAndrew, suspended superintendent of schools, charged with insubordination, incompetence, and unpatriotic acts. It is to the normal Chicago trial what a Buster Keaton movie is to a Cecil De Mille society feature—proof that the great American public can be interested in something with no sex appeal; if it's funny enough.

The explanation of the subject of the article is given because at times it may sound like a report of a meeting of the senate immigration committee; or the house naval committee; or the Ladies Literary and Poetry society.

The trial sessions are held in the meeting room of the board of education—a cross between an ordinary courtroom and a legislative chamber. J. Lewis Coath, dignified president of the board, occupies the bench with judicial poise and effective gavel. Before him is a desk for stenographers. Then, facing the bench, rows of senate-like desks for board members, also occupied by Attorneys Righelmer and Sullivan for the prosecution; Burke and Shannon for the defense; and McAndrew himself, a genial, puffy cheeked, full bearded man with a hint of Santa Claus, but no touch of the foreign spy of fiction about him.

There is, of course (this is Chicago) a press table and a school board publicity man to make reporters comfortable. And behind a rail are seats for some 200 spectators, jammed with school teachers, parents, civic leaders, a few of those people whose business in life is to attend trials.

Franklin Schrader of New York, editor of the Progressive, former editor of the Fatherland, former secretary of the Republican Congressional campaign committee, was the chief witness at yesterday's session.

Gray-haired, dignified, faintly Germanic and strongly senatorial, Schrader discoursed for an hour and a half on Longfellow's poetry, the injustice of the present immigration law, the need for a bigger navy and the extent of British propaganda in this country in 1900, during the world war, and at the present time.

"I believe," the witness informed the court at the end of that time, "that I have about exhausted my subject."

If children, particularly children of foreign-born parents, don't have heroes, they won't grow up into patriots, Schrader explained. Histories which reflect upon the heroes of America therefore destroy patriotism, he pointed out. And particularly, he hastened to emphasize, should the non-English heroes whom he complained were much neglected, be given their due.

"Whoever controls public schools and builds up ideas not absolutely loyal," he said, "has a powerful weapon to destroy the nation. And nothing—his voice acquired a decided suggestion of a sob—"nothing is more effective toward that end than to undermine the love of little children for someone who stands out to them as a being of heroic proportions."

Schrader then quoted at length from speeches made in England by Owen Wister, author of the Virginian; George Putnam, publisher; George Harvey, former U. S. ambassador to the court of St. James; and others, in which suggestions of unity between the Anglo-Saxon nations appeared. He also quoted some of them as referring to the "use of more just histories" in American public schools.

Alleged propaganda efforts of editors and educators—spurred by social influences and British decorations—also were cited in detail.

Then Schrader moved to another angle of the propaganda situation. "I have seen the poet Longfellow referred to as 'The platitudinarian,'" he said. "When I was a boy we revered him as our greatest poet. There has been a sudden change in viewpoint, and it is because of pro-British propaganda. If I am any judge of literature, 'Paul Revere' and 'Hawthorne' are among the greatest of poems."

He assailed immigration laws which "open the doors to Britons" but bar others; he cited recent naval building programs of England and Japan as proof that America needs a bigger navy.

The new school historians emasculate our heroes, he concluded.

Two school teachers also were witnesses. One, Miss Mary E. Lynch, testified merely that she had had on the walls of her schoolroom a picture of the Boston tea party and the conventional "Spirit of '76"; and that they mysteriously disappeared one night.

Mrs. Josephine Didier, history teacher, testified she had been "subjected" by the board of examiners of the board of education to a history course at the University of Chicago which she complained was unpatriotic. The course, she explained, was recommended by the board.

The text, she said, was Schlesinger's "new viewpoints on American history." The book, she said, was under consideration at the time—1926—as a text in Chicago elementary schools. In it, she said, Washington was referred to as a "Rebel"; the participants in the Boston tea party as "vandals"; the Colonists as persons "needlessly excited" who "had no right to revolt."

PRETTY RODEO STAR MAY BE CHARGED WITH MURDER

Lakeview, Ore., Nov. 3.—(UP)—An attempt will be made to bring pretty Lorena Trickey Harris, nationally known rodeo star, before a jury on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the death of her husband, J. P. "Slim" Harris, District Attorney Charles Combs announced today.

Combs made his statement as the Lake county grand jury reconvened to take formal action on its investigation of the mysterious circumstances surrounding the stabbing of Harris, also a rodeo performer, last September.

Mrs. Harris was arrested on Sept. 3, and has been held in jail since then in connection with her husband's death. She told police she was riding in an automobile with her husband when a stranger leaped on the running board and stabbed him.

ORDERS JURY IN 'WICKY' HANSON CASE SEGREGATED

St. Paul, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Judge Carleton F. McNally today ordered the jury trying Arthur "Wicky" Hanson on charges of murder segregated.

The action was taken to prevent possibility of jury tampering which might result from wide publicity given the case and the importance of the trial, it was explained.

Five jurors had been chosen when court adjourned this noon and selection of the remaining seven is expected to extend into tomorrow's court session.

Hanson is charged with the murder of James Barrett, underworld character by night and business man by day.

TWO DETECTIVES SHOT BY GANGSTERS IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Two city detectives were shot today by members of a gang said to have been headed by Gus Nichols, police character.

Bert Haycock was shot twice in the right arm and Tom Higgins was wounded in the wrist. The detectives had been watching a jewelry salesman who was about to dispose of some jewelry said to have been obtained in a holdup, police said.

When the gang opened fire on the detectives, a hail of bullets struck downtown buildings. Police chased the gang through the downtown district, firing as they went. One bullet crashed through a office window and barely missed a stenographer.

The gang, said to have been headed by Nichols, escaped in an automobile.

Pleasure is a coy maiden; we should go more than half way to meet her, yet seeming not to do so, lest she be scared and take to flight. ## THANKSGIVING

THANKSGIVING is just in the offing. Mother is thinking of her turkey roasting, pumpkin pies and home made cider. Father is anticipating many relatives will be at the festal board.

Charles E. Whelan, editor of the Modern Woodman, writes of the need of gratitude at the time of this feast:

Souls untouched by the emotion of gratitude are without that quickening impulse which marks the difference between life and death. Deaf ears and unseeing eyes, silent tongues, idle hands and sluggish feet in the presence of pulsing millions craving the human contact of interest and sympathy are evidences of atrophied souls, incapable of sensing the harmony of childish voices, catching the vision of beautiful lives, uttering a cheery greeting, feeling the hand of genuine friendship or finding the path to true happiness. With the adamant of selfishness these souls have walled themselves into their own dungeon until they have created a sarcophagus for their dead selves.

Why speak to these of thanksgiving feasts, paeans of grateful hearts or an outpouring of voiced benediction? They can have no understanding of the rhapsody of gratitude, for they have never given nor received it. With manifold gifts freely bestowed upon them they have greedily taken and ascribed their acquisition to their own cunning, yielding no praise to the Source; while there is not even a distant echo of a single being who proclaims a beneficence at their hands. The world's weal has not been augmented by their living and no regret shall follow their going, for they never have been a part of life's realities.

Who has no fruitage of a happier soul to bring to the feast of Thanksgiving comes empty handed, though freighted with the riches of earth's farthest clime. Who finds no smile of gladness lighten some countenance as he passes on the road walks in darkness, though lights as bright as the sun gleam along his path. Who carries no share of another's burden in his travel finds himself weighted with crushing load. Who lends no hand to a fellow wayfarer, struggling to advance, gropes in vain for friendship. Who steps not aside to give firmer footing to a falling brother feels his own feet.

No man can isolate himself to himself and live. He may have a room, but it might as well be a grave. He may have wealth, but it is worthless for purchasing happiness. He may have power, but it eventually will overcome him. He gets what he buys. If he would have the joy of Thanksgiving he must take the blessings which have come to him as a medium of exchange with which to purchase that gratitude of others for his living which alone shall fill the measure of his content. Thus he receives what he gives, reaps what he sows, finds what he loses.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

UNSELFISH service is freely exemplified in all that the Red Cross does.

All fraternal beneficiary societies visualize the American Red Cross is not only a kindred organization in spirit and purpose, but year by year it is becoming more and more an inculcate aid and protection to us. It not only inspires us by its unselfish ideals, but it protects our treasuries by its practical precaution, its conservation of human life.

The Red Cross is trying by education and organized prevention to teach sanitation, hygiene, life saving, first aid, every sort of common sense philosophy by which accidents and diseases may be defeated in their menace to human life. As it succeeds in that laudable purpose, it renders us a distinct and unique service.

Above this somewhat mercenary and material estimate, the American Red Cross deserves our sympathy and continued support, because in an inestimable measure it incarnates the ideal that underlies all of our societies—the truth that unselfish service for the common good is the biggest thing in the world.

The American Red Cross, with a membership of more than three millions and an additional junior membership of six millions, has become the recognized agency of the American people for extending service to humanity. Its work is supported through the membership dues secured once a year during the Roll Call.

The National Fraternal Congress, continues the Bee Hive, has recognized the possibilities for Red Cross service by appointment of a regular committee which works with the National Red Cross in all matters calling for such collaboration.

CHICAGO TRIAL OF SUPERINTENDENT
OF PUBLIC SCHOOLSCHARGES OF INSUBORDINATION,
INCOMPETENCE, UN-
PATRIOTIC ACTSGRAY-HAIRED FRANKLIN SCHRA-
DER, OF NEW YORK,
ON STANDBy C. C. NICOLET
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, United States of America, Nov. 3.—This is an account of a session of the trial by the board of education of William McAndrew, suspended superintendent of schools, charged with insubordination, incompetence, and unpatriotic acts. It is to the normal Chicago trial what a Buster Keaton movie is to a Cecil De Mille society feature—proof that the great American public can be interested in something with no sex appeal; if it's funny enough.

The explanation of the subject of the article is given because at times it may sound like a report of a meeting of the senate immigration committee; or the house naval committee; or the Ladies Literary and Poetry society.

The trial sessions are held in the meeting room of the board of education—a cross between an ordinary courtroom and a legislative chamber. J. Lewis Coath, dignified president of the board, occupies the bench with judicial poise and effective gavel. Before him is a desk for stenographers. Then, facing the bench, rows of senate-like desks for board members, also occupied by Attorneys Righeimer and Sullivan for the prosecution; Burke and Shannon for the defense; and McAndrew himself, a genial, puffy cheeked, full bearded man with a hint of Santa Claus, but no touch of the foreign spy of fiction about him.

There is, of course (this is Chicago) a press table and a school board publicity man to make reporters comfortable. And behind a rail are seats for some 200 spectators, jammed with school teachers, parents, civic leaders, a few of those people whose business in life is to attend trials.

Franklin Schrader of New York, editor of the Progressive, former editor of the Fatherland, former secretary of the Republican Congressional campaign committee, was the chief witness at yesterday's session.

Gray-haired, dignified, faintly Germanic and strongly senatorial, Schrader discoursed for an hour and a half on Longfellow's poetry, the injustice of the present immigration law, the need for a bigger navy and the extent of British propaganda in this country in 1900, during the world war, and at the present time.

"I believe," the witness informed the court at the end of that time, "that I have about exhausted my subject."

If children, particularly children of foreign-born parents, don't have heroes, they won't grow up into patriots, Schrader explained. Histories which reflect upon the heroes of America therefore destroy patriotism, he pointed out. And particularly, he hastened to emphasize, should the non-English heroes whom, he complained, were much neglected, be given their due.

"Whoever controls public schools and builds up ideas not absolutely loyal," he said, "has a powerful weapon to destroy the nation. And nothing—his voice acquired a decided suggestion of a sob—"nothing is more effective toward that end than to undermine the love of little children for someone who stands out to them as a being of heroic proportions."

Schrader then quoted at length from speeches made in England by Owen Wister, author of the Virginian; George Putnam, publisher; George Harvey, former U. S. ambassador to the court of St. James, and others, in which suggestions of unity between the Anglo-Saxon nations appeared. He also quoted some of them as referring to the "use of more just histories" in American public schools.

Alleged propaganda efforts of editors and educators—spurred by social influences and British decorations—also were cited in detail.

Then Schrader moved to another angle of the propaganda situation.

"I have seen the poet Longfellow referred to as 'The platinoidian,'" he said. "When I was a boy I revered him as our greatest poet. There has been a sudden change in viewpoint, and it is because of pro-British propaganda. If I am any judge of literature, 'Paul Revere' and 'Hidwatha' are among the greatest of poems."

He assailed immigration laws which "open the doors to Britons," but bar others; he cited recent naval building programs of England and Japan as proof that America needs a bigger navy.

The new school historians emasculate our heroes, he concluded.

Two school teachers also were witnesses. One, Miss Mary E. Lynch, testified merely that she had had on the walls of her schoolroom a picture of the Boston tea party and the conventional "Spirit of '76"; and that they mysteriously disappeared one night.

Mrs. Josephine Didier, history teacher, testified she had been "subdued" by the board of examiners of the board of education to a history course at the University of Chicago which she complained was unpatriotic. The course, she explained, was recommended by the board.

The text, she said, was Schlesinger's "new viewpoints on American history." The book, she said, was under consideration at the time—1926—as a text in Chicago elementary schools. In it, she said, Washington was referred to as a "Rebel"; the participants in the Boston tea party as "vandals"; the Colonists as persons "needlessly excited" who "had no right to revolt."

PRETTY RODEO STAR
MAY BE CHARGED WITH MURDER

Lakeview, Ore., Nov. 3.—(UP)—An attempt will be made to bring pretty Lorena Trickey Harris, nationally known rodeo star, before a jury on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the death of her husband, J. P. "Slim" Harris, District Attorney Charles Combs announced today.

Combs made his statement as the Lake county grand jury reconvened to take formal action on its investigation of the mysterious circumstances surrounding the stabbing of Harris, also a rodeo performer, last September.

Mrs. Harris was arrested on Sept. 3, and has been held in jail since then in connection with her husband's death. She told police she was riding in an automobile with her husband when a stranger leaped on the running board and stabbed him.

CASE SEGREGATED

St. Paul, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Judge Carlton F. McNally today ordered the jury trying Arthur "Wicky" Hanson on charges of murder segregated.

The action was taken to prevent possibility of jury tampering which might result from wide publicity given the case and the importance of the trial, it was explained.

Five jurors had been chosen when court adjourned this noon and selection of the remaining seven is expected to extend into tomorrow's court session.

Hanson is charged with the murder of James Barrett, underworld character by night and business man by day.

SHOT BY GANGSTERS
IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Two city detectives were shot today by members of a gang said to have been headed by Gus Nichols, police character.

Bert Haycock was shot twice in the right arm and Tom Higgins was wounded in the wrist. The detectives had been watching a jewelry salesman who was about to dispose of some jewelry said to have been obtained in a holdup, police said.

When the gang opened fire on the detectives, a hail of bullets struck downtown buildings. Police chased the gang through the downtown district, firing as they went. One bullet crashed through a office window and barely missed a stenographer.

The gang, said to have been headed by Nichols, escaped in an automobile.

BARTLETT-MACK RING ENCOUNTER CLOSES EVEN UP

POTTS FORCED TO HALT JOHN-SON-RYAN BOUT TO PRE-VENT KILLING

McCALLISTER, PINE RIVER BOY,
OUTPOINTED BY FESSER
AT LEGION SHOW

Jimmy Potts' stable of ring fighters gave Brainerd fans a real treat at the boxing show last night at the roller rink.

While not a first class string of boxers, the 12 boys gave one of the greatest exhibitions of milling ever witnessed in the state, outside the Twin Cities. For toe to toe fighters the battlers proved themselves professionals.

Clever fighting was displayed in the windup four round bout between Richie Mack and Ollie Bartlett, Minneapolis lightweights. Judges awarded a draw in their decision.

Bartlett was the more experienced of the two and continuously lead the attack but found his hands full in the waiting fists of Mack. Ollie Bartlett has been fighting now for eight years, the majority of these years on the west coast where he is given a good rating. Mack is a coming fighter. He takes punishment well and is capable of giving back blow for blow.

The preliminaries furnished plenty of mixed boxing. Johnny Walsh, Minneapolis, and Harry Siegel, St. Paul, 112 pound boys, fought an even battle in the first preliminary. The youngsters showed speed to burn and accurate punching.

Young Kimball of Robbinsdale outpointed Eddie Lewis, Minneapolis, 124 pounders, in a four-round bout. The aggressiveness of Kimball made him a strong favorite with the fans.

The Johnson-Ryan preliminary was a slaughter. Johnson, of Minneapolis, and Ryan of St. Paul, clashed in a four round bout, which Potts was forced to stop to prevent Ryan from making a killing. Johnson took the mat hard for the count of six but was saved by the bell. Coming out of his corner groggy, Ryan proceeded to pummel Johnson about the face and body with such force that Potts was forced to postpone the slaughter.

Mike Fesser of Wayzata was given a decision over "Red" McCallister of Pine River in four rounds. The boys tipped the scales at 160 pounds and dished out plenty of haymakers, had they landed. The Pine River big boy was a good fighter but lacked the ring experience. It was his first ring battle before an audience. "Bat" McKnight, Minneapolis, won an easy battle from "Tiger" Smith, Los Angeles, after both fighters were reprimanded by Potts for failure to mix it heartily. The boys were in the 154 pound class. Smith took the count of nine in the first round and was saved by the bell at the close of the first round after the count of four.

The boxing exhibition was held under the auspices of the American Legion and attended by close to 150 fans. Another exhibition will be held in a month at the U. C. T. Auditorium. Basil T. Heath acted as announcer.

TY COBB TO BE FREE AGENT

READY TO BARGAIN WITH ANY CLUB IN THE COUNTRY

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 3.—(UP)—Ty Cobb, veteran outfielder, will become a free agent ready to bargain with any club in the country because the Philadelphia Athletics are unable to pay the salary Cobb asks.

This was made known after a conference between Cobb and Connie Mack, president of the Athletics, yesterday.

"If we had Sunday baseball we might be able to pay Cobb the salary he has a right to demand," Mack said following the conference. Although the salary under which Cobb played last year—a one year contract—was not made known it was understood to be $60,000.

Mack said he would ask for waivers on Cobb and it is assumed that the other American league clubs will waive him, thereby permitting the veteran outfielder an opportunity to bargain with any club he desires.

New York, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Reports from Philadelphia that Ty Cobb, released from the Philadelphia Athletics, would seek a conference with New York Giant officials brought a statement from John McGraw that he would have to confer with other officials of the club.

"We had never considered the possibility of having Cobb with the Giants and it will take some conferences with Mr. Stoneham and some thought before I can make any statement," McGraw said.

17 LOCAL GRIDDERS IN FINE SHAPE ARE PREPARED FOR TILT

MILACA PULLS A SURPRISE IN
DISHING OUT 47-0 DEFEAT
TO ANOKA

IS NOT A CONFERENCE CLASH;
BRAINERD MEETS CROSBY
NOVEMBER 11

Fang who take Milaca for this season's setup are due to be sadly disillusioned after witnessing that young team in action. Handing down a stiff drubbing to the Anoka boys last Saturday by the count of 47 to 6, Milaca is primed up to do battle royal with the Brainerd boys when they make their appearance on the former's gridiron tomorrow afternoon.

The fact remains that any team that can carry the ball down the field for 47 points in any game no matter how weak the opponents are, must be considered and given their rightful place.

In past seasons Milaca has been trailing along with dogged determination but never able to get anywhere. This season the team surprised their opponents by trotting out a husky fighting lot who fail to acknowledge defeat.

But Brainerd after its successful triumphant march so far this season, feels that no matter how good the Milaca team may have become, their proper place is not in the win column.

It is almost a sure bet that Kasch's men will come out with another win but there are many things to consider. The local team will enter the game tomorrow with a complete roster with the exception possibly of Hautala who has a bad knee.

Seventeen local players will make the trip, leaving at 10:30 A. M. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Those who will wear local uniforms are Barnes, Guin, Goedderz, Greger, Welliver, LaCourse, Greener, Hanson, Abrahamson, Fox, Ellison, Wise, Buscher, Swanson, W. Hautala, A. Hautala and Fuller.

The Brainerd team has received a donation of $16 from the local merchants to purchase equipment. Coach Kasch announced that the team appreciated the donation very much. It represents in a way the co-operation and backing the team is receiving this season at the hands of the Brainerd public.

The Brainerd-Milaca is not a conference game but a win will add to local laurels this year. The deciding game of the season will be with Crosby on November 11.

JOE DUNDEE IS IN THE PINK OF CONDITION

RIGOROUS TRAINING FEATURED
BY SLASHING SPARRING
BOUNTS

HAS NO FEAR OF OUTCOME OF
BOUT WITH ACE HUDKINS OF NEBRASKA

By RON WAGONER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Los Angeles, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Joe Dundee, welterweight champion, is willing to lend a hand—in fact, two hands, with all the power and smack he can muster behind them—to aid and abet Ace Hudkins' retirement from the ring.

"Anyone is a sucker who quits the ring because he loses a fight," the champion said, referring to Hudkins' statement to the United Press yesterday that he would abandon the flat game if he comes out second best in his chance at Dundee's title tonight. "But if Hudkins feels that way he can count on plenty of help from me—and personally I think he is as good as retired now."

Dundee, in the pink of condition after rigorous training featured by slashing sparring bouts in preparation for Hudkins, declared he had no fear of the outcome of the ten round bout with the Nebraska "Wildcat."

"Don't think that I underestimate Hudkins," he said, "but I feel confident that I can put him away by a knockout. I expect a tough battle while he lasts."

"As for quitting in case I lose, I'm not such a sucker as that. But put this down—I didn't travel all the way from the east with the idea of losing a championship. It's worth too much to me."

Dundee, the clever ring master, adept at the shifting, slashing style of hitting, mixed with enough footwork to keep his person free of too many hard blows, presents a contrast to Hudkins, who gives and takes on the theory that he is tough enough to outbatter any man his weight in the world. In Dundee, however, he will meet an opponent who packs a jarring wallop—a harder blow than that of Sammy Baker, who slugged a losing fight with Hudkins here a few months ago.

It was Ace's style of blow for blow with attendant damage to himself as well as the other fellow that prompted the Lincoln fighter to his decision to take on a couple more fights and then retire if he falls short against Dundee.

SPORTSMATTER

BY FRANK GETTY
UNITED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

A great ball player and a gallant gentleman was lost to the game and to his fellows when Ross Young died in San Antonio ten days ago.

Tributes to the former Giant outfielder have come from every part of the United States where his baseball ability and his sportsmanship were known and admired.

"Young was one of the finest players I ever had on my club," said John J. McGraw. "He was a natural hitter and fielder."

"In every way his life was clean and he worked conscientiously for the best interests of the Giants. Neither on nor off the field did I ever have occasion to find fault with him and his death is one of the saddest incidents I can recall."

"Pep" Young long was recognized as one of the best right fielders and hustling ball players ever known in the major leagues. He was a "ball players' player," which means that his team-mates recognized his greatness.

After graduating from a Texas military academy, Young turned pro and went to the New York Giants in 1917, afterward being sent to Rochester for seasoning. "Pep" was a member of the pennant-winning New York teams of 1921, 1922, 1923 and 1924.

In the summer of 1926, stomach trouble forced the great outfielder to return to his Texas home, and Bright's Disease developed. He never recovered, although he made a gallant fight and kept his courage and cheerfulness to the end.

Baseball can do with more players of "Pep" Young's type.

The Giants need an outfielder of Young's caliber, at least two more good, young pitchers and a catcher, if they are to come through to the top of the National League in 1928.

Certainly, of the five clubs which will be very much in the running next season, the Giants have the best infield.

Bill Terry is getting to be just about the best first baseman in the league, the best in baseball, perhaps, after Lou Gehrig of the Yankees. When they make more useful, all-around second basemen than Rogers Hornsby, he will be both of them. And Travis Jackson is as good a shortstop as there is in the game. Even with a nibbled vertebrae, Freddy Lindstrom can play third base so well that John McGraw exclaimed recently:

"I wouldn't trade Freddy for 'Kiki' Cuyler, even with a bad back."

All of which is very encouraging to Giant fans. But there must be battery strength, and the Giants haven't got it at the moment.

Next year's National League race should be a pippin. The Reds probably will start earlier and avoid the detour into the cellar which spoiled their chances this year. The Cardinals will have Tommy Thevenow back at short-stop and will be just so much more dangerous. The Pirates should be no worse, and the Cubs have every reason to expect a higher rating than they received after their disastrous 1927 slump.

All of which promises a most enjoyable season for National League fans. But who's going to stop the Yankees in the American League?

BRAINERD MEETS REINFORCED MILACA ON FRIDAY

17 LOCAL GRIDDERS IN FINE SHAPE ARE PREPARED FOR TILT

MILACA PULLS A SURPRISE IN DISHING OUT 47-0 DEFEAT TO ANOKA

IS NOT A CONFERENCE CLASH; BRAINERD MEETS CROSBY NOVEMBER 11

Fans who take Milaca for this season's setup are due to be sadly disillusioned after witnessing that young team in action. Handing down a stiff drubbing to the Anoka boys last Saturday by the count of 47 to 6, Milaca is primed up to do battle royal with the Brainerd boys when they make their appearance on the former's gridiron tomorrow afternoon.

The fact remains that any team that can carry the ball down the field for 47 points in any game no matter how weak the opponents are, must be considered and given their rightful place.

In past seasons Milaca has been trailing along with dogged determination but never able to get anywhere. This season the team surprised their opponents by trotting out a husky fighting lot who fail to acknowledge defeat.

But Brainerd after its successful triumphant march so far this season, feels that no matter how good the Milaca team may have become, their proper place is not in the win column.

It is almost a sure bet that Kasch's men will come out with another win but there are many things to consider. The local team will enter the game tomorrow with a complete roster with the exception possibly of Hautala who has a bad knee.

Seventeen local players will make the trip, leaving at 10:30 A. M. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Those who will wear local uniforms are Barnes, Guin, Goedderz, Creger, Welliver, LaCourse, Greener, Hanson, Abrahamson, Fox, Ellison, Wise, Buscher, Swanson, W. Hautala, A. Hautala and Fuller.

The Brainerd team has received a donation of $16 from the local merchants to purchase equipment. Coach Kasch announced that the team appreciated the donation very much. It represents in a way the co-operation and backing the team is receiving this season at the hands of the Brainerd public.

The Brainerd-Milaca is not a conference game but a win will add to local laurels this year. The deciding game of the season will be with Crosby on November 11.

JOE DUNDEE IS IN THE PINK OF CONDITION

RIGOROUS TRAINING FEATURED BY SLASHING SPARRING BOUTS

HAS NO FEAR OF OUTCOME OF BOUT WITH ACE HUDKINS OF NEBRASKA

By RON WAGONER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Los Angeles, Nov. 3.—(UP)—Joe Dundee, welterweight champion, is willing to lend a hand—in fact, two hands, with all the power and smack he can muster behind them—to aid and abet Ace Hudkins' retirement from the ring.

"Anyone is a sucker who quits the ring because he loses a fight," the champion said, referring to Hudkins' statement to the United Press yesterday that he would abandon the fist game if he comes out second best in his chance at Dundee's title tonight. "But if Hudkins feels that way he can count on plenty of help from me—and personally I think he is as good as retired now."

Dundee, in the pink of condition after rigorous training featured by slashing sparring bouts in preparation for Hudkins, declared he had no fear of the outcome of the ten round bout with the Nebraska "Wildcat."

"Don't think that I underestimate Hudkins," he said, "but I feel confident that I can put him away by a knockout. I expect a tough battle while he lasts."

"As for quitting in case I lose, I'm not such a sucker as that. But put this down—I didn't travel all the way from the east with the idea of losing a championship. It's worth too much to me."

Dundee, the clever ring master, adept at the shifting, slashing style of hitting, mixed with enough footwork to keep his person free of too many hard blows, presents a contrast to Hudkins, who gives and takes on the theory that he is tough enough to outbatter any man his weight in the world. In Dundee, however, he will meet an opponent who packs a jarring wallop—a harder blow than that of Sammy Baker, who slugged a losing fight with Hudkins here a few months ago.

It was Ace's style of blow for blow with attendant damage to himself as well as the other fellow that prompted the Lincoln fighter to his decision to take on a couple more fights and then retire if he falls short against Dundee.

Fitting for Life

Some one has been defining the duty of a college as fitting men and women for future problems. Education ought to do more than that. Education ought to fit men and women to live to the utmost, to appreciate the better, finer things of life. To make a man efficient ought to be only one of the results of education.

SPORTSMATTER

BY FRANK GETTY
UNITED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

A great ball player and a gallant gentleman was lost to the game and to his fellows when Ross Young died in San Antonio ten days ago.

Tributes to the former Giant outfielder have come from every part of the United States where his baseball ability and his sportsmanship were known and admired.

"Young was one of the finest players I ever had on my club," said John J. McGraw. "He was a natural hitter and fielder."

"In every way his life was clean and he worked conscientiously for the best interests of the Giants. Neither on nor off the field did I ever have occasion to find fault with him and his death is one of the saddest incidents I can recall."

"Pep" Young long was recognized as one of the best right fielders and hustling ball players ever known in the major leagues. He was a "ball players' player," which means that his team-mates recognized his greatness.

After graduating from a Texas military academy, Young turned pro and went to the New York Giants in 1917, afterward being sent to Rochester for seasoning. "Pep" was a member of the pennant-winning New York teams of 1921, 1922, 1923 and 1924.

In the summer of 1926, stomach trouble forced the great outfielder to return to his Texas home, and Bright's Disease developed. He never recovered, although he made a gallant fight and kept his courage and cheerfulness to the end.

Baseball can do with more players of "Pep" Young's type.

The Giants need an outfielder of Young's caliber, at least two more good, young pitchers and a catcher, if they are to come through to the top of the National League in 1928.

Certainly, of the five clubs which will be very much in the running next season, the Giants have the best infield.

Bill Terry is getting to be just about the best first baseman in the league, the best in baseball, perhaps, after Lou Gehrig of the Yankees. When they make more useful, all-around second basemen than Rogers Hornsby, he will be both of them. And Travis Jackson is as good a shortstop as there is in the game. Even with a nibbled vertebrae, Freddy Lindstrom can play third base so well that John McGraw exclaimed recently:

"I wouldn't trade Freddy for 'Kiki' Cuyler, even with a bad back."

All of which is very encouraging to Giant fans. But there must be battery strength, and the Giants haven't got it at the moment.

Next year's National League race should be a pippin. The Reds probably will start earlier and avoid the detour into the cellar which spoiled their chances this year. The Cardinals will have Tommy Thevenow back at shortstop and will be just so much more dangerous. The Pirates should be no worse, and the Cubs have every reason to expect a higher rating than they received after their disastrous 1927 slump.

All of which promises a most enjoyable season for National League fans. But who's going to stop the Yankees in the American League?

MINNESOTA TO PLAY 3RD GAME AGAINST NOTRE DAME AT SOUTH BEND SATURDAY

Minneapolis, Nov. 3.—The coming week-end will see Minnesota completing its three-year contract with Notre Dame when Dr. Spears' fighting team meets the Rockne regiments at Notre Dame. It will be the first time a Minnesota team has ever played on the Notre Dame field, but the second time the Gophers have had to invade Indiana this fall. Results of the first Indiana invasion were not so bright.

Minnesota's games against Notre Dame in the past two years have been two of the most thrilling in all Minnesota football history, although each has resulted in the same way, three touchdowns for the Irish to one for Minnesota. This year both universities have better teams than those that met in 1925 and 1926. Minnesota's improvement over 1926 will have to be very much greater than Notre Dame's if the Northmen are to come out on top, for Notre Dame was better a year ago.

National peddlers of football news say that the game Saturday will attract the greatest array of football experts, "by-line" writers and All-American pickers that will be gathered together this week. They and the thousands of others who go to the class of the football contests have already taken all of the 30,000 seats available in the Indiana town, and no one but a "One-Eyed Connolly" will stand the ghost of a chance of crashing the gate.

Minnesota will have to depend on its ends and tackles to win against the Irish, for it is to be doubted that even Collins and Niemce can go through the Gopher line to victory. Each year the speedy Notre Dame backs Dahman and Flanagan have been able to sweep around opposing teams, which does not by any means mean Minnesota only, and register touchdowns. Rockne starts these plays at unexpected times, his favorite strategy being to run the ends from the middle of the field, or even points well back in his own territory, from which scoring plays are not looked for. If the Gopher forwards can run these two antelopes to the sidelines Minnesota will have an outside chance to win.

Because Notre Dame is so much easier to reach than Minneapolis, the football experts of the east will probably journey to the game to get a glimpse of the mighty Herb Joesting, who is expected to be in shape for his best effort of the year to date.

Pharmer and Barnhart, Minnesota's damaged backs, are making only a slow recovery, and that's no bear story. This leaves the Gophers without a kicker. As a result of this situation Minnesota revealed one of the finest substitutes for kicking in the Wisconsin game that has recently been seen on a football field. They hurried almost every Wisconsin kick to such an extent that it mattered little whether the Badger fullback could kick or not. He wasn't allowed to. If the Gopher punts had averaged 30 yards they would have been better than those of the opposition.

To date Minnesota has scored 52 more points than any other Western Conference team, Illinois, with 110 being next highest to the Spearman's 162. Defensively Illinois, Michigan, Chicago and Purdue have held opponents to fewer tallies than the 31 that have been registered against Minnesota.

JACK SLATTERY TO MANAGE BOSTON BRAVES

Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—(U.P.)—Jack Slattery, former major league catcher and more recently baseball coach at Boston college and other eastern schools, has been signed to manage the Boston Braves next season, Judge Emil Fuchs, president, announced. Slattery will succeed Dave Bancroft who resigned following the close of the season.

The new Boston manager broke into baseball as a catcher for the Red Sox in 1902. Later he played with the Chicago White Sox, the St. Louis Cardinals and the Washington Senators.

Retiring from the active playing, game Slattery became a coach and was head baseball instructor at Harvard for five years and also at Tufts. He was a coach and scout for the Braves under George Stallings.

Half Fur Coat Is Among Novelties of Season

Half a fur coat not only is better than half a loaf, but in many cases it is far more fashionable than a full coat. That is, if the coat is denuded of no more than its collar. Some of the smartest fur garments now are made without collars and this lack is supplemented by large and expensive stoles or scarfs composed of two or more skins of beaver, fox, fisher or sable. The new moleskin coats are in conventional designs to the waist, but from the waist to hem the skins are worked in the most extraordinary lightning flash and chevron designs.

French Shoe Vamps Are Longer; Like Yank Toes

The short-vamped shoes which French women have preferred for generations are gradually being supplanted by the American toed variety. Less pointed than new English lasts, but much rounder than they used to be, are the newest French shoes. Vamps gradually are lengthening, and French women's feet begin to look more like those of their American visitors.

Circular Front Skirt Is Feature of Dress

The cut of a dress must give the effect of being simple if it is to be smart, says the Woman's Home Companion. The dress illustrated achieves this simple yet individual effect by means of an unusual yoke in the blouse and a skirt which is cut circular in front and plain at the back. The yoke follows the line of the collar in the front and ends in a point at the back from which hangs a little diamond-shaped tab. Deep revers on the collar add the finishing touch to this usually smart dress. This design is suited to such fabrics as wool, grosgrain, wool crepe, crepe faille and light-weight kasha.

Velvet the Outstanding Fabric of Autumn Mode

It is beyond question that velvet is the outstanding fabric of the fall mode. The Parisian women, who Paris correspondent in the New York Herald-Tribune, have favored it above all other materials and this predilection has been shared by both modiste and couturier. Velvet, as we know it today, is a lightweight, supple, soft stuff that is beautifully colored and may be softly draped, fine tucked or shirred; molded to the head or cemented together to make a becomingly soft brim. In fact, it will do practically anything that is asked of it. There are also lovely stitched velvets, gold embroidered velvets and pantomimic velvets uniquely embossed into effects resembling flowers. There is no color that is not represented in dozens of shades, and no possible combination of colors that have not been tried out. For summer wear the colors were softly vivid, bright, but mellowed by a silvery sheen; but as the present season glides into the fall the chapeaux take on the shades of autumn—ruby reds, woody browns and gray-tinted blues like the misty November days. But never for a moment has the popularity of black and beige waned; they are the two distinctively smart colors and will still be of paramount importance.

Other soft, pliable fall hat materials are grosgrain and faille tulle. These fabrics are made into exquisite little models of the sports variety and are exceedingly smart, but lack the softness and drapability of velvet. However, grosgrain comes into its own as a trim on velvet and felt hats in the form of bands, bows, brim edges, and is frequently combined with velvet in toques and cloches in the form of inserts, brim facings, or uniquely shaped geometric designs of various colors. Incidentally, trimmings in the present mode are more of less negligible.

Ancient Aromatic Herbs

The first mention of the use of perfumery seems to be in the 30th chapter of Exodus, 34th verse, containing the formula for the holy anointing oil to be used solely by the priest of the tabernacle of the Jews. This perfume consisted of "sweet spices, stacte, onycha and galbanum." These were all aromatic herbs or gums.

An Old Holiday And How We Celebrate It

Allhallow Even, or Hallowe'en as it is popularly termed, is a continuation of the ancient custom of setting apart a certain day (at that time November 1st) of thankfulness to Pomona, the goddess of the harvest. It is amusing to note that the earliest reference to this festival speaks of games played with nuts and apples, even as we to-day make merry with apple bobbing and roasting chestnuts.

It is, therefore, quite fitting, that we should choose this time as Winter Apparel Week for the entire family. Harvest days are over—Pomona has been generous—and it is time to think of warmer clothing for the colder days ahead.

Our low prices contrast sharply with the high quality of goods we offer. It is a pleasure to have you drop in and look around, whether you buy or not and we are sure you will always find something interesting each time you call.

RESIDENT OF N. E. FOR 50 YEARS DIES

Albert Kosbab, Aged 69 Years, Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon at His Residence

WAS CHURCH ORGANIZER

Survived by Wife, Six Sons and One Daughter; Funeral to be Held Saturday

Albert Kosbab, aged 69 years, a resident of N. E. Brainerd for 50 years, passed away at his home 423 C. street at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His wife and son Edward were at his bedside at death.

Mr. Kosbab came to Brainerd when a young man from Toledo, O., being married in 1882 to Miss Bertha Walk of Chicago. He was employed at general offices as janitor when the N. P. Railway Company had their headquarters at Brainerd in the early days.

Mr. Kosbab was a charter member who was instrumental in the organization of the Zion Lutheran church in Brainerd and in which faith he received the last rites on Sunday. He was a steady attendant of the church since its foundation here.

Surviving besides his wife, Bertha Kosbab, are six sons, Edward, W. Brainerd, Richard K. Tacoma, Wash., Arthur A., of Sedro-Wooley, Wash., Werner A., of Michigan, Walter O. E., of Springfield, Ill., Edwin G. Everett, of Washington, and one daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Dreacy, of Canada, also seven grand children and two great grand children and three sisters in New York state.

The funeral will be conducted Saturday afternoon from the residence and the Zion Lutheran church, Rev. F. C. Rathert, officiating. The time of the funeral will depend on the arrival of relatives.

HI-Y CLUB MEETS

Six Members Receive Initiation; Rev. N. P. Olmsted is Speaker

The Brainerd Hi-Y club had an interesting meeting last evening at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. N. P. Olmsted of the Congregational church was the speaker of the evening. His talk proved very interesting to the boys. He spoke in regards to the material and spiritual matters which interest boys and he suggested that boys of high school age should avail themselves of all interesting reading possible.

Thirty were in attendance last evening, six of whom were new members and received their initiation into the club. The new members were Gaylord Kinney, Harry Bellmuth, Otto Dahl, Zane Smith, James Richards and Clarence Wetterland. Ross Olmsted and Adolph Erickson were appointed members of a committee to secure entertainment for a musical program at next weeks meeting.

The club voted to assist the committee of ladies with part of the donation necessary to secure drapes for the windows of the Y. M. C. A. This donation of five dollars will be the clubs boost for the Y. M. C. A. in assisting with city wide campaign this autumn.

Beans, parkerhouse rolls, cake and bananas consisted the menu last evening.

1 American Marine Is Killed in Fight Near Jicaró, Nicaragua

Washington, Nov. 3. — (UP) — One American marine was wounded, two national guardsmen killed and 60 Nicaraguan rebels killed or wounded in an engagement near Jicaró, Nicaragua, Tuesday morning, according to state department advices from Managua today.

A national guard and U. S. marine patrol under Lieuts. Moses Gould and Clarence J. Shapelle, fought against 250 rebels in the main engagement. Later a rebel ambush three miles from Jicaró was routed without casualties. The marine patrol is now in Jicaró, according to American Charge d'Affaires Dana Monro.

Passed Away at Hospital This Morning; Resident of City For 16 Years

ACTIVE CHURCH MEMBER

Funeral Will Take Place From Home of Sister in Blakeley, Minn.

Pneumonia claimed Mrs. Evelyn Oberst, wife of P. J. Oberst, 702 North 9th street, at the St. Joseph's hospital at 3 o'clock this morning. She was 43 years old, and had been a resident of Brainerd for 16 years.

Mrs. Oberst was born in Benson, Minn., June 10, 1884 and married at Henderson, Minn., in 1904. Her maiden name was Miss Evelyn Young. She was a very devoted Catholic and took an active interest in the welfare of the local church. She was also a prominent member of the St. Francis Guild.

Surviving besides her husband are three children, Marjorie, Jean and Patricia and four sisters, Mrs. McMahon, of New York, Mrs. Thomas Wheeler and Miss Lottie Young, of Chicago and Mrs. John Mann, of Blakeley.

The remains may be viewed at McNamara's funeral parlors until noon tomorrow. The body will be shipped tomorrow afternoon to Blakeley for burial Saturday morning from the home of Mrs. John Mann. Interment will be in Jessenland cemetery. Friends are requested not to send flowers.

DUCK MOVEMENT TRACED BY BAND

Numbered Aluminum Band Attached to Leg of Mallard, Latter Killed at Borden Lake

E. D. FRAYER THE HUNTER

Sends Band to Bureau of Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture

Some days ago E. D. Frayer, of St. Paul, former Brainerd man, was duck hunting at Borden Lake and brought down a fine fat mallard. Examining it, he found an aluminum band attached to its leg bearing the imprint "300,622 Notify Biol. Surv."

Mr. Frayer wrote the Bureau of Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., and received this reply:

"The Biological Survey is in receipt of your recent communication. The bird carrying band No. 300,622 was a mallard, banded on March 28, 1925, by T. E. Musselman, at Scobey Lake, Missouri.

"By means of these numbered aluminum bands important investigations relative to the migrations and other facts in the life histories of North American birds are being advanced. The bands are attached to the birds by volunteer co-operators, both in the United States and Canada, who serve without pay.

"Success in the bird-banding work is therefore dependent upon the reports of persons in both countries on such banded birds as come to their attention. The information furnished by you is important, and we thank you for your interest and co-operation."

SCHOOL OFFICERS IN ANNUAL MEET

150 in Attendance at Farmers Room in the Court House

M. L. JACOBSON, SPEAKER

Urges Rural School Officers to Maintain Closer Relationship With Teachers

Close to 150 rural school officers were in attendance yesterday at the annual meeting in the farmers room of the court house.

M. L. Jacobson, of the state department of education urged the officers to maintain a closer relationship with the rural school teacher, aid her in her troubles, and back her to the utmost in matters beneficial to the welfare of the school.

"Pick the best teachers you think your community can afford. Keep her as long as you can even if it is necessary for you to increase her salary. Make living conditions desirable for her," advised Mr. Jacobson.

"Ninety percent of the present teachers are professionally trained. They have advanced farther than the rural teacher of previous years. They have been trained to study conditions. There has been a revolution in the rural school teaching era," the speaker stated. "If the teacher finds she cannot take care of the work and if after proper investigation and assistance by the officers, it would be well for that teacher, to resign. But in the case of dismissals satisfactory cause must be shown. If you have hired a teacher who does not do very well, meet with her and assure her that if she will do her part you will back her to the utmost. If the teacher has troubles and you cannot find them, ask her what they are and after learning the circumstances help her in every way. The teacher is in the position to develop good character in the school child."

Baptist Prayer Meeting The regular weekly prayer meeting service will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the First Baptist church. "The Apostle's Prayer" will be the subject for discussion. A renewed emphasis is being placed on the thought of prayer, and the church is seeking to make it primary in all of its work. A full attendance is desired. All are urged to come.

High Compression Performance with any Gasoline

In converting waste heat to power, the new companion invention to the Super-Six principle accomplishes the ideal performance of the high-compression type motor that is sought through the use of special and costly fuels.

The Super-Six principle transforms what otherwise is destructive vibration into useful power. The companion invention converts waste heat to power. Combined they afford the highest efficiency in power generation and transmission ever achieved within our knowledge. This makes Hudson the most economical car per pound weight in the world. No wonder such performance results have won for Hudson its greatest triumph. Hudson offers a genuinely new kind of performance. Drive it and you will know.

There is a full line of Hudson Super-Six models on the 127-inch Super-Six chassis. And with the new 118-inch chassis, a duplicate of the larger car in all particulars save length, there is also a car for those who want such signal quality and performance in a shorter, more compact car.

High Compression Performance with any Gasoline

In converting waste heat to power, the new companion invention to the Super-Six principle accomplishes the ideal performance of the high-compression type motor that is sought through the use of special and costly fuels.

The Super-Six principle transforms what otherwise is destructive vibration into useful power. The companion invention converts waste heat to power. Combined they afford the highest efficiency in power generation and transmission ever achieved within our knowledge. This makes Hudson the most economical car per pound weight in the world.

No wonder such performance results have won for Hudson its greatest triumph. Hudson offers a genuinely new kind of performance. Drive it and you will know.

There is a full line of Hudson Super-Six models on the 127-inch Super-Six chassis. And with the new 118-inch chassis, a duplicate of the larger car in all particulars save length, there is also a car for those who want such signal quality and performance in a shorter, more compact car.

VICE PRESIDENT OF SINCLAIR CO. IS EXAMINED

A. MASON DAY ACCUSED OF RECEIVING DETECTIVE REPORTS ON JURY

DAY YESTERDAY REFUSED TO ANSWER QUERIES OF THE GRAND JURY

Washington, Nov. 3. (UP) — Failing in two attempts to find what part A. Mason Day played in the shadowing of Fall-Sinclair conspiracy trial jurors by Burns detectives the government this afternoon acted to pry the alleged "contact man's" story from his unwilling lips.

Day, vice president of the Sinclair Exploration Company, is accused in one of the four affidavits which caused a mistrial in the case yesterday, of having received reports regularly from 14 or 15 Burns sleuths hired to check on the movements and financial status of the jury. The affidavit said the detectives' real employer was Harry F. Sinclair.

Day yesterday refused to answer certain questions by a grand jury preparing to vote indictments for jury tampering. He refused a second time this forenoon.

It was announced when the grand jury recessed for lunch that that body would certify to a District of Columbia supreme court justice this afternoon, probably presiding Justice Walter I. McCoy, that Day had refused to answer. It was also divulged that the U. S. district attorney would inform the court that the reasons Day advanced for not testifying were insufficient.

It would then be up to the judge either to grant Day immunity from testifying or order him to answer the grand jury's questions.

Thought She Would Choke From Gas

"I felt as if I would smother and my heart would stop, I had such terrible stomach gas. Had to sit up nights. Since taking Adlerika, I have not had a spell." — Mrs. M. F. Curley.

Just ONE spoonful Adlerika relieves gas and that bloated feeling so that you can eat and sleep well. Acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes old waste matter you never thought was there. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adlerika will surprise you. Johnson's Pharmacy and Economy Drug Co. — Adv

Helpful Employees

Most employers are at least relieved from one detail, and that is keeping track of the holidays. The employees usually handle them. — Atchison Globe.

A Nice Fellow But So Skinny

That's what the girls say about you fellows that need a few more pounds of good solid flesh and have never tried McCoy's Tablets.

A New Jersey Man was just as bad as you, but now he's got what the girls call a manly figure — he needed 28 more pounds and thanks to McCoy's he got them in just a couple of months. McCoy's takes all the risk — Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health — your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price. The name McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets has been shortened — just ask for McCoy's Tablets at H. P. Dunn's, Johnson's Pharmacy or any drug store in America. — Adv
